St Johns Primary School
St Patricks Day Autumn Fair
Saturday 19th March 2016
From 3.30 to 6.30pm
The St Johns Primary St Patrick’s Autumn Fair will be promoted to appeal to all ages and will maintain a grassroots community focus. In particular, it will have a strong family, multicultural and youth focus featuring markets, information stalls, community groups, children’s activities and entertainment.

Some of our entertainment includes Irish dancing, Irish music and the Snake Man.

In committing to the organising, marketing and promotion of the event, The St John's Primary will utilise its resources to coordinate a successful event. We believe with our dedicated advertising our event shall be successful with the main demographics being children aged 5-12. However with our fair being outside school hours for the first time, we will be able to target all family.

It is free entry for our patrons.

As a stall holder, you will become part of the generic advertising campaign for the St Johns Primary St Patrick’s Autumn Fair which will incorporate the following mediums:

A) Signage
   - Banners will be placed around the Dubbo area as well as light post banners that will be placed along Cobra Street, Sheraton Road.

B) Print
   - Newspaper advertising through the Photo News and other relevant publications.
   - Posters will be displayed in the throughout the local community noticeboards and local retailers.

C) Direct Mail
   - Direct mail campaign both printed and via email will be distributed to local residents, community associations and local businesses

D) Publicity
   - Media releases will be distributed to relevant media groups for publicity purposes

E) Technology
   - The St Johns Primary School website (http://www.stjohnspriarydubbo.catholic.edu.au/) will have a dedicated section heavily promoting the St Johns Primary St Patrick’s Autumn Fair and containing the latest information
   - We encourage any stallholder to utilise their Facebook page by sharing our Fair posts or doing their own individual posts.
The St John’s Primary St Patrick’s Autumn Fair is seeking stall holders to take part in this dynamic and entertaining day. We welcome you to advertise your business by having a stall.
